In the Open Room, North bid the proverbial 3NT and played for East to err. East sees North's hand and counts 6 clubs, 3 diamonds, and ? spades. Why would West play the ♠2 from ♠82, and then not pitch the ♠8? Answer, she wouldn't. This leaves declarer with the hand she actually held. HA is +300 and a 3 IMP gain rather than a 13 IMP loss.

In the Closed Room, Baker overbid to 3NT and North did not give East a chance to err.

1 2NT = 6-10 hcp. Hans Kuijff reports on Jack's methods. Jack uses 2♣ and 2♦ as strong. 2♣ is almost a strong two suiter. 2NT response to 2♣ is a limited balanced hand and GF. It is not 8+ but limited. We think that is a bit better. Bidding on with two unlimited hands is difficult for humans but even more so for robots.

At trick 5, after North signaled encouraging and South discouraging, declarer led a heart. From declarer's point of view it might endplay North, or cut communications if the hearts are not run, or on the run of 4 hearts, squeeze South, which might reveal a winning drop of ♠Qx in the North hand.

Score: Robots versus Humans, Humans +2 IMPs

Final Score: Robots versus Humans, Humans +26 IMPs

Adding one more board to compare...the final board of the Wagar (board 60) was snuck into the last robot round robin, board 14 (same dealer and vul). Baker picked up 9 IMPs to win by 1 ! Both teams made a good save at 5Hx, over 5D, likely -300 against a likely -400. Baker went down 1 on a favorable lead, and Bjerkan went down 3 on unfortunate declarer play. In the robot championship, no pair took the save, and one was +50 on an opening underlead of an ace!. Click here to see the results.

While it is difficult to determine how the robot teams would have done head-to-head against the Wagar teams, there is some indication, based on the results as a combination of bidding and play contests, that (even though the IMPs awarded are not accurate) that, on average, the robot teams would have competed well against the human teams, and Wbridge5 and Jack might have scored better, or even played better, than the Wagar teams.
